

Ignite a Healthy Chain Reaction!

(action plans)ⁿ

We connect your expert content with an ever-growing network of engaged and interested users. Your branded content is presented in the form of daily, weekly and monthly action plans, giving users the guidance and motivation to achieve nearly any health and wellness goal.

(reach)ⁿ

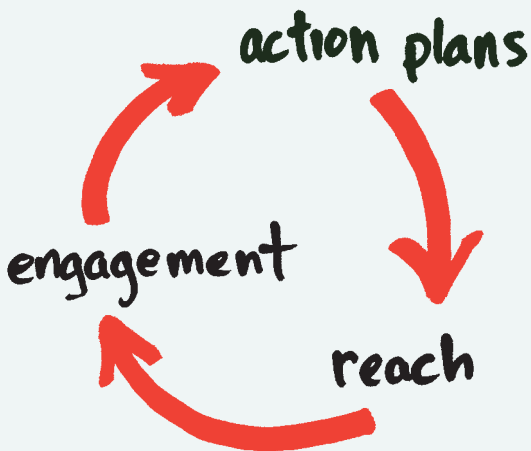

Your content is promoted by the individual health providers and health plans we partner with. And the content reaches individuals where they already are, on Facebook and mobile platforms they use every day. At any moment, users can tap into your branded content for help, motivation and the energy to start a chain reaction of good health!

(engagement)ⁿ

Highly-immersive mobile phone and Facebook apps are a constant companion for the user, helping turn actions into a lifestyle every single day. And with integrated social networking, your brand is promoted by testimonials each time a user shares progress or reaches out for guidance or support.

Health and wellness is the goal.

You can be the catalyst to reaching it.

Measurably better health.

An advocate for creating and sustaining health behavior.

Numerasocial was formed with the belief that lasting health benefits require real behavior change. Social influence is one of the most powerful tools for achieving that change. Our robust and fully-brandable engagement tools enable you to play a powerful role in improving health and wellness.

(goals)ⁿ

Health assessments help your customers define success. Individuals take charge of their health by setting their own motivational and measureable goals.

(action plans)ⁿ

Your branded action plans offer daily, weekly and monthly guidance on how to achieve nearly any health and wellness goal. To-Do lists, reminders, progress reports and motivational milestones promote engagement. Game-like Challenge competitions encourage group participation.

(measurement)ⁿ

Numerasocial rises above the competition by integrating objective health information from industry-leading health repositories including Microsoft's HealthVault and Numerasocial Engage. Objective, evidence-based, informed action has a dramatic impact on compliance and clear outcomes.

(social+mobile)ⁿ

We reach users where they already are, on Facebook and mobile platforms they use every day.

Your brand. New audiences. A catalyst for your success.

We enable content partners to engage the user bases of some of the largest and most influential health organizations in the country. Enhance your brand and create a powerful connection that can help change users' lives.
